3. Qualification for the 2019 Women's Candidates Tournament

- 3.1. Players who qualify for the Women's Candidates Tournament are determined according to the following criteria, in order of priority:

Women's World Championship KO 2018;

Three (3) players who reach the semi-finals of the 2018 Women's World Championship (excluding the Women's World Champion 2018 who qualifies directly to the World Championship Match).

Winner of the Women's World Championship Match 2018 (GM Ju Wenjun);

Average FIDE Rating of the 12 monthly lists starting from 1st January 2018 to 1st December 2018.

Four (4) players will qualify by their average rating.

For the purpose of deciding the four qualifiers by rating, the average ELO from the twelve standard FIDE rating lists from 1st January 2018 to 1st December 2018 will be used. In case of equality, two decimals will be taken into consideration. If the numbers are still equal then the total number of rated games in all 12 standard rating periods shall be decisive: the player with the bigger number of games qualifies.

- 3.2. If any replacements are needed including due to a withdrawal or a refusal of participation, the average rating list will serve for the purpose, as described in article 3.1.

4. Confirmation of Participation

- 4.1. The list of qualified players and reserves is to be published on the FIDE website together with the player's contract.
- 4.2. All qualified players should sign their respective contracts and send it to the FIDE Secretariat within two weeks after they receive their copy from FIDE by email. Additional contracts between the organizer and the players may be signed if needed.
- 4.3. It is each player's responsibility to download a copy and send it signed to the FIDE Secretariat by fax or by the registered mail. A player who does not submit her contract within the deadline shall be replaced according to article 3.2 (FIDE may accept late contracts received after the deadline only for serious reasons). Players qualified as replacements will have one further week to send their signed contracts.
- 4.4. A player who signs her contract but withdraws is to be replaced by a player as described in article 3.2.
- 4.5. Players that fail to provide a satisfactory reason for withdrawal, after they have signed the player's contract, could be sanctioned by the decision of the FIDE Presidential Board.

- 5.6.1. The games are played using the electronic clocks and boards approved by FIDE.
- 5.6.2. The time control for each game is: 90 minutes for the first 40 moves, followed by 30 minutes for the rest of the game with an increment of 30 seconds per move starting from move 1.

5.7. Draw by mutual agreement

The players cannot draw a game by agreement before black's 30th move. A claim for a draw before black's 30th move is permitted only through the Chief Arbiter (or his Deputy) in case of threefold repetition.

5.8. Conditions of victory

- 5.8.1. The player with the most points (1 point for each win, half a point for each draw, 0 for each loss) will be the winner of the tournament and qualifies for the Women's World Championship Match of 2019-2020 Cycle. A tie shall be broken according to article 5.8.2 below.
- 5.8.2. Tie-breaks
If the top two (2) or more players score the same points, the tie is to be decided by the following criteria, in order of priority:
  - a. The results of the games between the players involved in the tie.
  - b. The total number of wins in the tournament of every player involved in the tie.
  - c. Sonneborn - Berger System.
- 5.8.3. If there is no clear winner with the above 3 criteria, there will be a special competition between the players who still remain tied after using the 3rd criteria (Sonneborn – Berger) – Annex 1

5.9. Prizes

- 5.9.1. The total minimum prize fund of the Women's Candidates Tournament amounts to 200,000 (two hundred thousand) euros. The amount is net and cleared of any local taxes. The money prizes shall be allocated as follows (minimum in euros):

WOMEN'S CANDIDATES TOURNAMENT 2019

ANNEX 1

Tie-break system

After a new drawing of colors, each tied player will play two (2) tie-break games with the other tied opponent(s). The games shall be played using the electronic clock starting with 25 minutes for each player with an increment of 10 seconds after each move.

1. All tie-break games shall be played according to the following:
  - a. Play is governed by the World Championship Technical Regulations (annex 2), which apply with the exceptions mentioned below in (b), (c) and (d).
  - b. The players do not need to record the moves. An arbiter shall record the moves.
  - c. The player who has the move may stop the clocks and consult the Arbiter's score sheet and if her next move will produce a threefold repetition of position (according to Article 9.2a of the Technical Regulations), or the 50 moves rule (according to Article 9.3a of the Technical Regulations), he himself must write the intended move on the score sheet and claim the draw if he wants. A player can also claim a draw according to Articles 9.2b and 9.3b of the Technical Regulations. If the claim is found to be correct, the game is immediately ended as a draw. If the claim is found to be incorrect, the Arbiter shall add three (3) minutes to the opponent's remaining time and the game continues with the intended move in accordance with Article 4 of the Technical Regulations. A maximum of two (2) incorrect claims for a draw can be made by each player. If a player makes a third (3rd) incorrect claim, the arbiter shall declare the game lost for this player.
  - d. If a game has ended by resignation, checkmate, time loss, stalemate, triple repetition or any other of the ways described in Article 5 of the Technical Regulations, no claim for irregularities shall be accepted (irregularities include clock settings and all other described in Article 7 of the Technical Regulations).
2. If after the games in Article 1 there are still players tied for 1st place then, after a new drawing of colors, these players will play blitz games. Each tied player will play two games with the other opponent(s). Each player will receive 5 minutes on her clock + 3 seconds for each move starting from move 1. If there is a tie again, this process will be repeated for the tied players, for a maximum of two (2) more times.
3. After the games in Article 2, and if we have only two players still tied, sudden death games will be played. The player who wins the drawing of lots, may choose the color. White shall receive 5 minutes on the clock and Black shall receive 4 minutes whereupon, after the 60th move, both players shall receive an increment of 3 seconds starting from move 61. In case of a draw the player with the black pieces is declared the winner.
4. After the games in Article 2, and if we have three players still tied, sudden death games will be played too. The three players will be initially ranked according to their average FIDE rating. The players initially ranked No.2 and No.3 will play first and the winner will face the player initially ranked No.1. The sudden death games will be played as described in article 3. above. The winner of this procedure is No.1 in the final standings and the loser of the final match is No.2 in the final standings.
5. After the games in Article 2, and if we have four players still tied, sudden death games will be played too. The four players will be initially ranked according to their average FIDE rating. Then No.1 plays No.4 and No.2 plays No.3 and the two winners play the final match. All the sudden death games will be played as described in article 4 above. The winner of this procedure is No.1 in the final standings and the loser of the final match is No.2 in the final standings.
6. After the games in Article 2, and if we have five players still tied, sudden death games will be played too. The five players will be initially ranked according to their average FIDE rating. The players initially ranked No.4 and No.5 will play first and the winner will face the three remaining players as in article 5 above. All the sudden death games will be played as described in article 3 above. The winner of this procedure is No.1 in the final standings and the loser of the final match is No.2 in the final standings.
7. After the games in Article 2, and if we have 6 players or more still tied, sudden death games will also be played in accordance with the spirit of articles 3, 4, 5 and 6 above. Further details will be announced by the Chief Arbiter.
8. If tie-breaks are needed to determine any other possible qualification spots for the next World Championship cycle, then the procedure described in article 1 will be applied as well, including articles 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7.

There shall be a pause of 10 minutes between all tie-break games, unless the Chief Arbiter decides otherwise.
